I felt much more prepared to present my GLCE writing lessons. All of the student samples I showed my students and the group writing lessons, really prepared them to write well on their own!

How does WS work in my classroom?

Every WriteStep lesson has been field tested in over 350 very diverse classrooms. No matter the background of your students or their ability level, WriteSteps lessons work! All of the lessons are written in easy to follow and very user-friendly manner. The lessons were written by a teacher for teachers.

You first watch the short 30 minute lesson, when and where you want. Next, you use the lesson materials from the binder to teach the lesson to your students. This allows you to try out the lesson and techniques in your own classroom.
